

By the Lord Lieutenant and Councill.

ORMONDE.

Upon consideration of the annexed Instrument, whereby it is concluded and accorded that there be a further continuation of the Cessation of Armes, and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the fifteenth day of August, 1645. at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day. And the Lord Lieutenant and Councill doe by this Proclamation in His Majesties Name, Ratifie, confirme, and publish the same, And doe Require all His Majesties Subjects whom it may concerne by Sea and by Land to take notice thereof, and yeeld all due obedience thereunto in all parts thereof.

Ant. Midenfis.

Geo. Cloyne.

Cha. Lambart.

Arthur Chichester.

Gerrard Lowther.

Bolton Canc.

Fr. Willoughby.

Tho. Lucas.

Robert Forth.

G. Wentworth.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

WHEREAS Articles of Cessation of Armes were agreed and concluded on at Sigginstowne in the County of Kildare, the fifteenth day of September, in the nineteenth year of His Majesties Raigne, By and between Us the Lord Lieutenant by the name of JAMES PARQUES of Ormonde, Lieutenant Generall of His Majesties Armies in the Kingdom of Ireland, For and in the Name of our Gracious Sovereigne Lord CHARLES by the grace of God, of Great Brittain, France, & Ireland, &c. By vertue of His Majesties Commission bearing date at Dublin, the last day of August, in the said nineteenth year of His Majesties Raigne, of the one parte, And Donogh Lord Viscount Muskery, and others authorized by His Majesties Roman Catholicke Subjects in Armes in the said Kingdome, &c. of the other parte: Which Cessation of Armes was by the said Articles to continue for one whole year, beginning the first day of September, 1643. at the houre of twelve of the clock of the said day. And whereas by his Majesties Commission under his Great Seal of England, the fourth and twentieth day of June 1644. the Lord Lieutenant are authorized to Treat concerning the settling & establishing of a firme and perfect truce within this Kingdome. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall, and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, And the said Lord Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome, of the other part, on the fifth day of September last conclude, and accord that there should be a further Cessation of Armes, & of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the first day of December then next, at the houre of twelve of the clock of the said day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome, and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, And the said Lord Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other parte, did on the 11 day of November last, conclude and accord that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the last day of January, then next, at the houre of twelve of the clock of the same day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us, as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, And the said Lord Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other part, did on the 11 day of December last conclude and accord that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome untill the last day of March then next at the houre of twelve of the clock of the said day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, And the said Lord Muskery and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome on the other part, did on the first day of March last, conclude and accord that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all acts of Hostility in this Kingdome untill the last day of April then next, at the houre of twelve of the clock of the same day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant, by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us, as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome, and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, and the said Lord Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe, by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other part, did on the one and twentieth day of April last conclude and accord, that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the twentieth day of May then next, at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, and the said Lord Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe, by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other part, did on the sixteenth day of May 1645. conclude and accord that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes & of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome untill the fourth day of June then next, at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome, and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, And the said Lord Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe, by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other parte, did on the eighth day of June 1645. conclude and accord that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome untill the eighteenth day of June 1645. at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part and the said Lord Muskery and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other part, did on the fourteenth day of June 1645. conclude and accord that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the fourth day of July 1645. at the houre of 12 of the clock the same day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome, and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, And Patrick Darcy, and Geoffrey Brown, Esquires, deputed and authorized by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome of the other parte, did on the thirtieth day of June, 1645. conclude and accord that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes, & of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the 18. day of July, 1645. at the houre of 12 of the clock the same day. And whereas the Lord Lieutenant by vertue of his Majesties Authority entrusted with Us as his Lieutenant Generall and Generall Governour of this his Kingdome, and by advice of the Councill, and For and in the Name of his Majesty on the one part, and the said Lord Muskery, and others deputed and authorized in that behalfe by his Majesties said Subjects, now or late in Armes in this Kingdome, &c. of the other part, did on the fifteenth day of July, 1645. conclude and accord that there should be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the last day of July, 1645. at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day. And in regard the said Lord Muskery, Nicholas Plunket, Esq. Sir Rob. Talbot Barronet, Dermot o Bryen, Patrick Darcy, and Geoffrey Brown, Esquires, deputed and authorized by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome, &c. of the other parte, have concluded and accorded in that behalfe by his Majesties said Subjects now or late in Armes in this Kingdome, &c. of the other parte, have concluded and accorded that there be a further continuation of the said Cessation of Armes and of all Acts of Hostility in this Kingdome, untill the fifteenth day of August, 1645. at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day, upon the like Articles and agreements, to all intents and purposes as are expressed in the said former Articles of Cessation, concluded on at Sigginstown, on the 15 of September, 1643. And as if the said Cessation had continued untill the said fifteenth day of August, 1645 at the houre of twelve of the clock the same day. In witness whereof, the said Lord Lieutenant to that part of this agreement which remaines with the said Lord Muskery, Nicholas Plunket, Sir Rob. Talbot, Dermot o Bryen, Patrick Darcy, and Geoffrey Brown, hath put his hand and seale, and the said Lord Muskery, Nicholas Plunket, Sir Robert Talbot, Dermot o Bryen, Patrick Darcy, and Geoffrey Brown, to that part of this agreement which remaines with the said Lord Lieutenant, have put their hands and seales the 18 day of July, 1645. in the one and twentieth year of His Majesties Raigne.

Muskery.

N. Plunket.

Rob. Talbot.

Dermot o Bryen.

Patr. Darcy.

Geff. Brown.